

The Seventh Annual USF
Symposium & Celebration of Research by Undergraduates
April 3, 2009

Co-Sponsored by Student Government
Marshall Student Center

7:15 AM — 8:00 AM	Registration and Poster Set-up, 2nd Floor Lobby
8:00 AM — 8:30 AM	Official Welcome and Breakfast, Ballroom East Dr. Naomi Yavneh, Associate Dean, The Honors College & Director, Office of Undergraduate Research Dr. Karen Holbrook, Vice President, Office of Research and Innovation Dr. Karen Liller, Interim Associate Vice President and Dean, USF Graduate School Student Government Address Funding for breakfast generously provided by Student Government
8:30 AM — 11:30 AM	Research Poster Presentations, Ballroom West Students must be at their posters from 8:55 AM — 11:30 AM for judging
9:00 AM — 11:15 AM	Research Oral Presentations, 2nd Floor Meeting Rooms
11:15 AM — 12:00 PM	Undergraduate Research Roundtable, MSC 2707 Spirit Room
11:30 AM — 12:15 PM	Poster Viewing (Judging Completed), Ballroom West
11:30 AM — 12:15 PM	Performances and excerpts from “Oh What A State We’re In”, “Rhapsody” and “Forking Off in a Candy Shoppe”
12:15 PM — 1:15 PM	Luncheon (by invitation only), Ballroom East Dr. Stuart Silverman, Dean, The Honors College Remarks by Provost Wilcox “Rhapsody” A film by Sarah Wilson and Joyce Yong Catered by Macaroni Grill Funding for lunch generously provided by Student Government
1:30 PM	Keynote Address, Oval Theatre “Don’t Box Me In” — Preserving the Art of Inquiry and Exploration in Research and in Life Dr. Antoinette Jackson, Assistant Professor and Director, Heritage Research and Resource Management Lab USF Department of Anthropology

Awards Ceremony immediately following